MEETING RESERVATION?

Dear Brothers,

This year's annual Pre-Parade Brunch celebrating the 124th Annual Polish Constitutional Day Parade will go down in Chicago Society's history books as one of the Society's most successful events. This was due to the presence of this year's Grand Marshall, Chicago's own Coach Mike Krzyzewski of the Duke University Blue Devils, the 2015 NCAA Men's National College Basketball Team. The event was sold out for weeks and was one of the hottest tickets in town. Coach K set the tone for the brunch by taking photographs and signing autographs for all those in attendance. Even Bishop Wypych, during his remarks before the invocation, requested a photo with Coach K, who immediately left his table and posed with the Bishop at the podium for a photo. Coach K's remarks talked about his family background and how all in the room are immigrants and should be proud of their heritage and of having the opportunity to be successful in the United States. All of the speakers from both U.S. Senators Mark Kirk and Richard Durbin to the President of the Cook County Commissioners, Toni Preckwinkle commented on Coach K's achievements and what a role model he plays.

The program went on without a flaw with 16 speakers and the presentation of three scholarships. The scholarship recipients were: First Place Ewa Balutowska $3,000; Second Place Damian Opiola $2,000 and Third Place Sara Dembeck $1,000.

But all of this would not have been possible without the hard work of our brunch chairman Ro Matuszczak and Brother Charles Komosa along with their wives Chris Matuszczak and Agata Komosa. I would also like to acknowledge committee member Brother T. Ron Jasinski-Herbert, who is the Society's official photographer taking photos of the event.

I would encourage all our members who enjoy the game of golf to attend this year's golf outing to be held on July 17, 2015, at Gleneagles Country Club in Lemont, Illinois. I have previously played the course and it's very challenging for all golfers. As usual, Brother Charles Komosa will chair the event with Brother Mark Orwat, and Brother Frank Czaja as our sign chairman.

Remember, the Chicago Society is only as good as its members. So I encourage all our members to participate in our activities and to ask your business clients and friends to attend. I guarantee a good time will be had by all. See you all at the 19th Hole.

Fraternally Yours,
Brother Ted Makarewicz

Dear Brothers,

Please continue to send me any items or articles that interest you or you can share with other brother members. This can include vacations, updates on family members, events, anniversaries, etc. It has been a very busy early May with all of the May 3rd Polish Constitution Day Brunch and Parade activities.

Please read the article about the 2015 Chicago Society Annual Golf Outing that we are sponsoring with the Advocates Society this year on Friday, July 17, 2015 at Gleneagles Country Club in Lemont. Brother Peter Dykas has agreed to chair the CS Family & Friends Picnic this year in August and will have more information available in the June Forum.

Take the time to consider a friend, family, or colleague to sponsor for Chicago Society membership to our great Society!

All the best,
Brother Charles Komosa

The May General Meeting not only offers great camaraderie, a featured speaker, but a delicious dinner menu including mushroom-barley soup, breaded pork chops, beef brisket, oven roasted potatoes, a garden blend of vegetables, bread, desert & coffee.

AROUND THE SOCIETY!

Congratulations to Brother Dr. Alex & Lauren Tzanos on the birth of their second beautiful child, newborn daughter, Lenna Tzanos, who came into the world at 7 lbs. and 10 ounces. Grandfather, Brother John Cieslik, left the Chicago Society Board meeting and stayed with his daughter at the hospital in the wee hours of the morning! Brother John said that he is buying drinks at the bar during the May General meeting.

Brother Chuck & Teresa Cwiakala spent the several days in May in sunny Sarasota, Florida visiting daughter Erica. Meanwhile, Brother Chuck's other daughter, Tanya Cwiakala and her children Eva and Max represented the family on the Chicago Society float during the May 3rd Polish Constitution Day Parade. Also reveling on the float were Brother Robert & Jennifer Groszek, with boys Luke and Drake, Brother Mark & Renata Pasiaka, with children, Emma, Angie & Mark, Jr. Brother Joe & Irene Hercik marched with the PNA float and contingent at the beginning of the parade.

Past Chicago Society President Brother Frank & Beverly Gondela participated in the first annual and very special polka "Dingus Day" celebration sponsored by orchestra leader and acclaimed Polka King Jimmy Sturr in New York. Upon arrival Brother Frank and Beverly were welcomed with a visit from and invited to the famous Grammy Award winner Sturr's estate for a reception. The Gondelas later vacationed at the beautiful Villa Roma Resort where they enjoyed several festive days of Polka dancing and fine dining. They also toured the 9/11 massive underground memorial in New York City for three hours with personal tour guide and polka radio personality Keith Stras, who did an outstanding job. Brother Frank says that mere words cannot describe the memorial.

Brother Mark Orwat and Brother Charles Komosa had a turnaround weekend business trip to LA in April where they spotted Brother Mario Mikoda supporting Polish boxer Andrzej Fonfara to victory. He is referred to as the "Polish Prince" – Fonfara not Brother Mario. Before returning to Chicago, Mark and Charley stopped on Sunday at the beautiful Pope John Paul II Polish Mission & Church in Yorba Linda and attended the 10:30 a.m. Polish Mass — very pious lads!

Congratulations to Brother Frank Spula, National President of the Polish American Congress and Polish National Alliance, who received the Commander's Cross of Service from Polish President Bronislaw Komorowski on May 1. The ceremony and reception at the Royal Palace in Warsaw was sponsored by the Wspolnota Society of Poland.

Brother Stanley Jendzejec traveled down to Maine to visit to attend his oldest son's, Dr. Steve Jendzejec, DO, 60th birthday party.

Brother Zenon & Jadwiga Olejniczak enjoyed several days at a Florida resort, relaxing in the warm mineral water springs. After returning home, Brother Zenon spent four days in the hospital convalescing from an infection reaction while working with his wife in the garden and being pierced with a rose thorn in the right thumb.

Congratulations to Brother Robert Radkowski as he became the VP/Head of Midwest District for the Polish and Slavic Federal Credit Union on March 19, 2015. The Polish & Slavic Federal Credit Union, with $1.6 billion in assets and 82,600 members, is the largest Polish financial institution outside of Poland. Servicing more than 100 thousand people in 15 branches in New York, New Jersey and Illinois and online, PSFCU has three branches in Chicago land: in Bridgeview, Mt. Prospect, and Norridge. A new branch in Schaumburg will be opened soon.

In April, Brother John Cieslik hosted a Polish American Advisory Committee meeting at the State of Illinois Building in downtown Chicago for and including Illinois State Comptroller Leslie Geissler Munger. Brother Ro Matuszczak, Brother Charles Cwiakala, Brother Mark Orwat and Brother Robert Groszek participated in the meeting.

FOUNDATION MEETING

The Chicago Society Foundation Board of Directors met on Monday, April 27, 2015, at Smakosz Restaurant in Chicago to discuss grant requests submitted during the past quarter. The board voted unanimously to award a $5,000 grant to the Polish American Association contingent upon some financial documentation to be provided by the organization. It also matched $3,000 voted by the Chicago Society for 2015 scholarships.

The next quarterly meeting of the CS Foundation will be held on Monday, July 27, 2015. Please call Brother Mark Orwat, CS Foundation secretary at 773-502-6969 for grant request information. Grant guidelines are also available at the Chicago Society's website.

KATYN REMEMBERED

Poland commemorated the 75th anniversary of the Katyn Massacre on April 3, 2015. The anniversary fell as historic enemies Poland and Russia are once again at odds, this time over the bloody Russian-backed rebellion in Eastern Ukraine. Joseph Stalin ordered the murder of 20,000 Polish soldiers and others during WWII.

1ST PLACE ESSAY — 2015 CHICAGO SOCIETY SCHOLARSHIP WINNER BY EWA BALUTOWSKA

World War II had started during a time when my grandma and great grandparents were living in a small village known as Bielini. They lived in a small wooden house next to a forest, near the edge of the village. They also had a cottage deep in the woods where they would store firewood for when winter came around. My grandma, Helena, was really good friends with a girl named Barbara who worked at a convenience store owned by her mother. They were only about 7 years old when the war started.

Barbara and her mom lived not too far away from my family's home so they would spend many days together, playing and talking on the porch. But unfortunately, once World War II began, all Jews were being persecuted and Barbara, being Jewish, could no longer visit my grandmother's house. Many families tried to escape the country, but sadly not many succeeded. Barbara and her mother didn't have many options left when their village started to become invaded with German soldiers so they decided to take refuge in the forest, next to my grandmother's house. They kept hidden deep within the forest for a couple of months, walking miles every night to get food from my grandmother during the night. Chances of being seen were slim during the night, but it was still dangerous. When things seemed to be settling down, my grandma finally convinced them to move into her house, where they slept in the attic. They kept all their possessions packed away in the event they had to make a quick getaway.

One morning, while my grandma was making breakfast and my great grandparents were outside working in the field, they saw a group of German soldiers rapidly approaching their home. My grandma had enough time to yell a warning to Barbara to get her mother and go hide in the attic. There were five soldiers that walked up to the front door and demanded to search their house. Two of them guarded the front door while the rest of them went through, opening any closets and dressers they could find. The attic door was well camouflaged so that the men narrowly missed seeing it. After about fifteen minutes that felt like hours, the soldiers eventually gave up and left the property, reminding my grandma the consequences for harboring any Jews. If they would have been caught, not only would Barbara and her mother have been killed, but the punishment for my grandparents would also have been death.

My grandma later found out from another one of her neighbors that someone had informed the German police they suspected people were harboring Jews in the village. That was why they were searching the houses, one of them being my grandmother's house. From then on Barbara and her mother, moved back outside into the cottage in the forest. They continued the routine they had started earlier in the war, walking at night to pick up food my grandmother would leave by a large oak tree every night.

They continued this routine daily for the next few months, becoming more and more discouraged that their situation would ever change. At a time when they had almost lost all hope, the war had come to an end and Jews were no longer being persecuted. They had escaped the persecution of Jews and they could once again leave the safety of the cottage and freely walk the streets. It took them a while before they truly felt safe to move back into their old home. They instead stayed with my grandma in their home for another couple of months before moving to another village, just outside of Stalowa Wola.
